

THE HONOURABLE JUSTICES MILLER, WINKELMANN AND COOPER
DIALOGUE WITH THE COURT OF APPEAL

VIDEO QUESTIONNAIRE

1. What is the importance of the right to counsel in the context of hearings before the Court of Appeal.
2. If you consider that an appeal should proceed to a hearing on the merits but you are denied public funding for the matter to proceed because the prospects of success are deemed inadequate by the funding authorities, outline the steps you would take and the arguments you would make.
3. Does a defendant who is in custody have a right to attend the hearing of an appeal on the merits of their conviction and/or sentence? Should they have such a right? Outline the reasons for your conclusion.