

CPD Questions - Nigel Pascoe QC

1. Lord Birkett emphasised the importance of advocacy in support of a cause, and linked that to the need for unpopular people to have their case put forward. If you are assigned a case, to prosecute or defend, which involves putting forward a cause in which you do not believe but which is within the law, reflect on the steps you can take to ensure your professionalism.
2. Consider how the current bar can assist future society: what are the matters that concern you most, namely that you think must be changed now in order to secure fundamentals in relation to the criminal justice system in the future?
